

Update: TMHP Secure Services Restored; Intermittent Difficulties Continue for TexMedConnect

Information posted November 15, 2011

TMHP has resolved the issues for Acute Care secure services. Acute Care providers can now access all online secure services.

Acute Care TexMedConnect users may experience intermittent errors and slow system response while performing claim-related activities such as claim submission and claim status inquiry.

TMHP regrets any inconvenience this may cause providers.