Updated EDI 270/271 Companion Guides Now Available

Information posted November 22, 2013

The ASC X12 v5010 Companion Guides covering the 270/271 transactions for Acute Care and Long Term Care have been updated to conform to the master template established by the Council for Affordable Quality Health Care (CAQH) Committee on Operating Rules for Information Exchange (CORE) Rule 152.

The information in the companion guides is unchanged; only the way the information is presented has changed.

The revised guides are available on this website on the EDI Companion Guides web page.
