Family Planning 2017 Claim Form to Change Effective September 1, 2014

Information posted July 18, 2014

Effective September 1, 2014, the Family Planning 2017 Claim Form will be updated to include information about the Expanded Primary Health Care (EPHC) Program. The updated form will be available for use by EPHC Program providers, Department of State Health Services (DSHS) Family Planning Program providers, Texas Women’s Health Program (TWHP), and Title XIX family planning providers.

The following changes have been made to the form:

- The name of the form has changed. The form is now called the “2017 Claim Form.”
- Block 1 has been updated to include check boxes for the Primary Health Care (PHC) Program and the Expanded Primary Health Care (EPHC) Program. Refer to: The article titled, “Effective September 1, 2014, the DSHS EPHC Program to be Administered by TMHP,” which was published on this website on July 18, 2014, for additional information about the EPHC Program transition to TMHP as claims administrator.
- Block 5 has been updated to indicate “DSHS Client No. (Medicaid PCN if XIX).”
- The claim form instructions have been updated.

Between September 1, 2014, and September 30, 2014, providers can submit either the April 2014 version of the 2017 Claim Form or the September 2014 version of the 2017 Claim Form. Effective October 1, 2014, only the September 2014 version of the 2017 Claim Form can be submitted.

Note: The 2017 Claim Form also contains a check box for “PHC.” The PHC checkbox will not be used until further notice. Providers will receive additional information in a future article as more information becomes available.
