The Denial or Refusal of License Handbook is Revised

Information posted April 18, 2017

Changes include the adoption of amendments to clarify the Texas Department of Aging and Disability Services may deny or refuse to renew a license for a Nursing Facility, an assisted living facility, a home and community support services agency, a day activity and health services facility, an intermediate care facility for individuals with an intellectual disability or related conditions, or a prescribed pediatric extended care center if the applicant, licensed holder, or a controlling party of the applicant or license holder is designated as unemployable on the Employee Misconduct Register or listed as revoked or suspended on the Nurse Aide Registry.

Click here to see changes.