Disability Services in Texas – Your Input Needed

Information posted September 5, 2019

The Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) is seeking input from people with disabilities and their families, caregivers, guardians, and friends. Let HHSC know what you think about services and supports for people with disabilities in Texas.

Your answers will be anonymous and will help HHSC plan for the future and improve services. The online survey is open until September 30, 2019. Questions can be emailed to IDD_Strategic_Plan@hhsc.state.tx.us.
