Members Sought for the Advisory Board for the Evaluation of Interpreters

Information Posted January 15, 2020

If you're interested in issues surrounding the administration of the interpreter certification program, you may want to apply to be a member of the Advisory Board for the Evaluation of Interpreters. The Texas Health and Human Services Commission executive commissioner will appoint members to the board to serve a term expiring August 31, 2022, unless otherwise noted. Applications are due by 11:59 p.m., January 31.

HHSC will consider the applicants' qualifications, background, and interest in serving on the board and will try to choose board members who represent the diversity of all Texans. For this reason, HHSC considers applicants' ethnicity, gender, and geographic location.

- Review the linked application letter to find out who the board is seeking as representatives and if you qualify.
- After reviewing the application letter, and verifying you meet the qualifications for at least one category, click on the application linked here to apply to be on the board.
